Dear Customer,

The concept of this retreat facility is designed to offer groups privacy and self-service. The objectives, tone or setting of your meeting is established by you and your supervising adults. You and your Staff are in complete control of your group and its actions, and are responsible for enforcement of all rules and regulations, time restraints, etc. Therefore in establishing your programming and itinerary, etc., please implement Retreat Rules, so as all groups on the premises will be consistent in structure, thus eliminating problems, accidents, etc., ensuring everyone an enjoyable experience. This sharing of the same rules by all businesses in Gulf Shores helps create and maintain our "Family Vacationing Paradise". Beach Retreat Customers are asked to share and appreciate this by adhering to all rules & regulations and maintaining a structure that compliments Family and Christian values everywhere.

Raising The Expectations,

Tim Hill Owner
